

The SANGUINIST

A RELIGIOUS WEEKLY

Glory be to Jesus,
Who in bitter pains
Poured for me the life blood
From His sacred veins.

WHAT DO YOU READ ? -- A SINCERE QUESTION:

At last Catholic authorities are receiving cooperation from civic leaders in their campaign against indecent literature. The genuine effort of New York's La Guardia and other civic leaders is both welcome and commendable. It is not an exaggeration to say that more than one young man standing within the shadow of the electric chair can trace his downfall to evil literature. A perusal of of court records only too frequently reveals the story of sordid crime that had its beginning with filthy, immoral literature and pictures. Too long has much of American youth lent themselves to the debauching and unprincipled influence of immoral publishers and editors. Many magazines and pictures found on the campus of even our Catholic colleges cause us to wonder. The reading of indecent literature suggests an immaturity of the mind that is not capable of thought or judgement. Do you still insist on being labeled "immature"?

THE BULLETIN EDITOR MAKES A SUGGESTION:

During the last few weeks a large number of copies of the Sanguinist have been mailed to interested Catholics, and to several institutions. Copies of the four last issues were sent to the Naval Academy, Annapolis; Our Lady of the Lake Seminary, Cleveland, Ohio; St. Charles Seminary, Carthage, Ohio; Brunnerdale Seminary, Canton, Ohio. Why not send your copy to a friend attending a non-Catholic school or college? Help along the work of Catholic Action. We will gladly print any comments you receive.

MISSION SUNDAY

Annually a day is set aside by the Holy Father to call the attention of Catholics the world over to the works and needs of the Home and Foreign Missions. Hundreds of American men and women are laboring under the banner of Christ at home and abroad. They are sturdy pioneers of the Faith, carrying out the command of Christ: "Go ye, therefore, and teach all nations." If you are indifferent of the cause of the missions, you reveal a careless disregard for his divine command. Offer your Mass and Holy Communion on this Sunday that God may bless and prosper the work of the Home and Foreign missions. Support the Dwenger Mission Unit, a campus organization. Among its notable achievements is the financial aid it has rendered to various missionary projects sponsored by the Society of the Precious Blood.

A TRIDUUM TO CHRIST THE KING -- FOR PEACE

Next Sunday, October 27, is the beautiful feast of Christ the King. We suggest that as many as possible set aside the days: Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, October 25, 26, 27. Make these days of special prayer. Attend Mass and Receive Holy Communion on them. Visit the Blessed Sacrament during the day. Storm Heaven with your prayers and personal sacrifice. Remember the days, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. Spread the news. Encourage your pals.

REFRESHING INTERLUDE ----- SOUND PHILOSOPHY

Quite recently there ensued a conversation between the oft-harassed editor of this humble page and one of the upper-classmen. This wide-awake collegian expressed surprise at the apparent indifference of the average student to the wonderful opportunity offered here for attending Mass. His philosophy: My planned future will not allow me to hear Mass as frequently as now. Later on in life I will need a lot of Grace and divine Help. While I have the chance, I am going to store up every grace that God will help me in my career. I can't bury my head in a pillow while so many Masses are being offered in the chapel.

LITURGICAL CALENDAR

SUN.20. Twenty-third Sunday after Pentecost. Today is Mission Sunday. Pray for the success of all Home and Foreign Missions.

MON.21. Feast of St. Hilarian, abbot. He is a saint of the early Church (291-373). He devoted his life to prayer and penance.

TUES.22. Ferial Tuesday. The Mass of the preceding Sunday is said.

WED.23. Ferial Wednesday. The Mass of the preceding Sunday is said. By ancient tradition, Wednesday is set aside to honor St. Joseph. Cultivate the practice of paying him special tribute on this day.

THURS.24. Today is the feast of St. Raphael, the archangel. You should be familiar with the beautiful biblical story of how Raphael, the archangel guided the youthful Tobias. Pray that St. Raphael may conduct you safely through the journey of life. THE TRIDUUM FOR PEACE BEGINS TOMORROW.

FRI.25. This is the feast of St. Chrysanthus and Daria, who were martyred. These two youthful members of the early Church were brutally killed for making converts among the aristocrats of Rome. THE TRIDUUM FOR PEACE BEGINS TODAY.

SAT. 26. Vigil of the feasts of Sts. Simon and Jude. Set aside Saturday as a special day to honor Mary. Tomorrow is the Solemn Feast of Christ the King. Confession, Communion. TODAY IS THE SECOND DAY OF THE TRIDUUM FOR PEACE.
